

Okay, how did the last week or so go?

Not too bad.

It was on the weather yesterday and the day before.

Fair.

That's why I didn't leave or whatever.

It looks like it was the last two weeks. My bad.

Those are to do and then these are the ones that are done.

All of these in state?

Yeah.

Perfect. I rushed out and forgot my wallet. So there might be one or two missing.

I appreciate you bringing in what you have.

Okay, what do you need back from me? Pretty much all of it. I figured you were going to say that.

Okay.

Speed staple. It sure is. Okay.

Okay.

Okay.

Any police contact in the last two weeks?

Nope.

No, random.

No.

Fair enough.

Fair enough.

I have a note here.

Are we past your jail weekends?

Not yet.

Not yet.

When will we be down with that?

I think I have two more.

Okay, and you do those every other weekend, correct?

Yeah, so this weekend.

This weekend.

And then not next weekend, but the weekend after that.

Yes.

so in theory when we meet that following week I can go in and take off your fees for the time that you were in jail because we can't bill you for that which is a good thing for you makes it cheaper for you okay I'll set a note in the system for the 11th that should be the week after you get all or after you get done with your jail days and we'll go in and take off the fees that we charge you for while you're in jail.

We just didn't want to go in and do it one at a time.
We're just going to take them off in bulk.
How many days did you serve total in jail or will you have served by the time you're done?
I think it's 15.
15? Okay.
14 or 15.
It's 29 divided by half.
I don't know how they do that.
They round up.
It talks, but they do.
If it's 0.5 or higher, they round up.
So it would be, 29 would be, what, 14 and a half.
Since it's at 0.5, they would round it up to 15.
So it would serve 15 days.
help back and sell okay I added the number of jail days onto that note so that when I see that on the 11th I can know how many days to go in and take off that'll save you $300 yeah but I mean I'm going to spend 15 days extra so it really don't save me nothing
We just have to have it track properly in the system.
I get what you're saying.
Realistically, you're not actually saving $300.
Or we're not billing you an extra $300.
That's...
That was probably the better way to go about that was to say that we aren't going to bill you an extra $300.
are we checking and charging every day checking in on the app yep perfect and what's that
yeah
looks good any issues the ankle monitor not that I know just that it's on and ever since I've gotten it it's kind of been like this but I have to sit very very still where the charging will cut in and out do you have like a q-tip at home or something take a dry q-tip don't anything on it wipe out where you plug the charger in and then wipe off the end of the charger they're both magnetic sometimes they just pick up little pieces of debris that make it hard for it to get a solid connection um if that continues to happen you can always talk to control about um maybe looking at swapping out ankle monitors or something to try to see if you can get one the charger and you can always bring that in and let control look at it and if it needs

needs to replace it, it'll replace it for you.
And if it's something like that, they should just replace it If it if they just I sorry it been like that the whole time Yeah If they determined that it was user damage they would bill you for it But something like that is just gradual over time wear them.
And they're not gonna bill you for that.
How's work going?
Not pretty good.
Staying busy this for sure.
and taking the last two days off that note.
That's fair.
Yeah, it was a very nice weekend,
so I'm sure that was difficult.
If it makes you feel any better,
I don't think this weekend's supposed to be very nice.
What's the race weekend?
Oh, you're great.
So I'm worried about it being so crowded.
I didn't even think about that well if it makes you feel any better you only got to do it one more just count the days down so it's not so bad once you get out of the drunk tank the worst thing is sitting in the drunk tank for 30 something hours
why do they sit in the drunk tank
you got me
I don't know

I know so very little about like the booking process and all that.

That just seems absurd that they'd sit you in the drunk tank.

It does.

Last weekend night like three people and they're coming down off heroin is horrible.

Not fun to sit around.

No.

Definitely test your patience.

Yeah.

Yeah.

That I could understand.

I can't get up this morning

I understand that problem

I did not want to get out of bed this morning

No, I went off the floor and I said

That's early

No, that's real early

I think it would have been better if I wasn't working till 5.

But when you know you're going in for a long day,

it's not something you're eager to get started on.

Right.

How are we feeling health-wise?

Good.

Any medical concerns?

I don't know.

Good.

How about your mental health? How's that doing?

Pretty good.

Any concerns for your mental health?

No.

Good.

How's sobriety gone?

Very easy.

No thoughts, dreams, urges to use your drink?

Are you attending any classes or anything like that?

No, you already completed that.

Bear with me.

Okay.

I'll give you that.

Mm-hmm.

How's everything at home going?

Pretty good.

How's the family doing?

Getting older, dude.

That's for sure.

That happens.

Any issues with any friends or family?

No.

Good.

Good support system around you?

Yeah.

Okay.

Address is the 1412 Payton Avenue?

Yes.

Phone number ends in 9671?

Yes.

Still running your company.

Yes.

Thank you.

I'm taking any prescription medications.

I don't show a financial balance.

That means that you're still paid in advance.

Looking at.

Okay.

Not including drug screen charges I show you going to roughly owe about So just be cautious on how much more you pay

If you overpay, it takes forever to get your money back from the county.

Okay.

I don't want that for you.

But you have overpaid versus what you owe to date.

$5,330.

So I would definitely slow down for now.

um that's gonna take a while for it to build through that thousand three hundred thirty dollars um i just don't want you like i said to overpay it and then have to wait on a refund to come through from the county so so that 270 i can pay like my last two weeks yeah absolutely because by then you'll have some um drug screen cost build to that it's going to go up but between now and

August it'll go up by the cost of dark screens so $15 for every dark screen between now and

August so it might go up a substantial bit it may not depending on how many dark screens you have okay but it shouldn't be anything crazy uh still have the silverado and the sierra yeah okay have you serviced those recently uh i got one in the shop getting a train transmission okay um i just asked because i forget to service my vehicles and so whenever i see this i try to remind people because it is a very easy thing to forget to do.

Life gets busy.

Life gets busy.

My trucks are a little expensive when you take them in.

I know.

Chuck and got a quote to get my oil changed and they were like, it's going to be $80.

And I was like,

I have to go buy my stuff to change it.

Walmart.

30 bucks.

That's absurd.

But

it's the way the world is anymore.

So.

Okay.

We will plan on meeting again.

Are we every other week?

Yeah.

Okay.

Kind of figured.

I just wanted to make sure.

So that means our next check-in will be on the 4th.

you'll have your final jail weekend that week after that weekend after we meet.

So,

um,

I'll go in that following week and have those fees reduced off there.

Okay.

Um,

we'll meet at six 30 as long as that's still working good for you.

Yes.

If something comes up and that doesn't work for you,
just holler at me,
let me know.

Um,

speaking of,

I've changed my email address.

The old one is no longer working.

I've seen that you scribbled on your card.

They decided they're going to change it after we ordered new cards, and we need to go through the new cards before they'll let us order more.

That's good.

There we go.

I will not be back in the office until Tuesday
due to the holiday weekend.

If you need something, email me.

I'll still see my emails from home, okay?

I just won't be in the office, so if you call and leave me a voicemail,

I'm not going to hear it until Tuesday.

And I don't want to do that to you.

So shoot me an email, let me know.

If you don't hear back from me and it's something that you need taken care of sooner rather than later, call under control, see if there's a case manager here you can talk to if you can't get a hold of me.

Okay.

All right.

Looking at locations for last week.

whoop up in Fort Wayne last week yeah picking up my daughter Ivan yeah no I need to add a little bit of drive time yeah that's fine I had to fly up there and fly back yeah no you're good that's a drive and a wow

Wow.

I was doing 90 most of the way to China.

You don't want to do that.

No, exactly.

I would rather you be a few minutes late coming back and having obeyed the speed limit.

Okay.

I didn't know.

I was like, man, I want to get home and then they come and get me.

You're okay.

I don't want you to pick.

There is always the potential on a traffic stop that you could pick up new charges.

It's never guaranteed. Usually it's just a ticket.

But there is always the potential you can pick up new charges, and that means that new charges would violate you here.

I would rather you drive the speed limit and be 5 minutes late and just let me know and we fix it in the future and give you more time Then try to make the time that I gave you which wasn't realistic and then get pulled over, arrested, pick up new charges.

So yeah, I'll never be mad at you that you went the speed limit and you were five or ten minutes late.

Also, there's almost always construction or traffic or something, and we can't really plan for that.

if you're going to friday made me real close i think i was in maybe a few minutes late when i was picking her up like getting back just because our friday track yeah you know what i mean yeah every time i made it out of indianapolis i was like oh my god now i'm down to 45 minutes just to get there then let alone come back yeah no you're good um we can't really plan on traffic so if you get stuck in traffic don't panic it happens just call control say hey i'm doing what's on my schedule i'm just stuck in traffic so i'm gonna be running a little late they're they're gonna tell you you're fine okay um but yeah when we get to your schedule definitely add more travel time for that because up to fort wayne and back it's not a quick trip yeah and it's not just the edge of fort wayne it's pretty all the way up in fort wayne yeah

That a 12-year-old little girl, she's not in a hurry for nothing.

Nope.

The world revolves and waits on her.

Of course you don't want to be the one to pop that bubble.

It'll pop in its own time.

And nothing wrong with that.

Nothing wrong with that either.

Looking at your schedule.

giving you more time to pick up and drop off your daughter i have you out from 3 30 7 30

how much time should i realistically add to that about half an hour hour yeah yeah i'm gonna comfortably say an hour if you're back sooner than that you're back sooner than that i'd rather give you the time to account for friday traffic and driving all the way to terra hood back okay
and then i'll add an hour to your return time from your dropping off your daughter as well just to ensure that we're giving you enough time to do those things I still have a program for Wednesdays
Yep, on here, good.
And then nothing between...
Let me fix our check-ins.
I've got it set up to our check-ins on here weekly.
Oh, I know why I did that.
So you could go in and add stuff if you need to, and that's fine.
Between now and the... fourth yeah um we got pick up your daughter next friday drop her off next sunday and we've extended that time work monday through saturday allotment time on wednesdays anything you can think of we need to add to your schedule uh just pass on thursdays okay um what time on thursdays
Uh, six to ten or whatever it is.
Okay.
What are we doing?
Uh, visiting.
Probably get the bike out.
That's why they're allowed.
I understand that.
Sold one of them last weekend.
I'm having a little bit of regret.
Sellers from us.
Understandable.
Especially with as nice as the weather is going to be getting understandable.
Anything else you can think of we need to put on your schedule?
I can think of.
Okay.
Am I allowed to schedule pastime on Sundays?

Mm-hmm.

Yeah.

I may do a few hours on Sunday if that's okay.

Yeah.

You have up to 10 hours to use.

6 to 10 is just 4 so you'd still have 6 hours to use okay let's do that what time do you want to schedule that for let's do 11 to 5

perfect

you're good to do pretty much anything within center time just now bars, clubs, casinos, strip clubs places of common nuisance that will be not this Sunday but next Sunday

i'm just gonna put it on for every sunday because you have the 10 hours to use every week okay um and if we ever need to move it to a different day or different time i don't have a problem with that in the slightest just let me know um i just would rather have it on there for you to use if you want to all right if you don't not a big deal so anything else you can think of hmm

no

I've got a doctor's appointment coming up but I think it's in end of June

okay

just keep me updated on that and when it gets closer we'll add it to your schedule okay

yeah

so

that's how that works

that works
